Note on the data

A. Mandate

1. In its decision 81/34 of 27 June 1981, the Governing Council requested that the Administrator continue to provide data on the magnitude and composition of technical cooperation activities (not all activities) funded by organizations of the United Nations system.

B. Presentation of the data

2. The raw data submitted by United Nations organizations for 2001 have been checked for consistency and accuracy prior to processing and presentation in tables 1 to 11, which contain both summary and detailed data. Tables 1 through 8 present data on technical cooperation expenditures while tables 9, 10 and 11 record contributions. Tables 12 through 22 contain historical data on both contributions and expenditures since 1980.

3. In more detail, table 1 presents a summary of grant technical cooperation expenditures by organizations of the entire United Nations system while table 2 shows the same data but distributed according to sectors. These tables should be consulted if interest centres only on broad aggregate information. Table 3, an extremely aggregative table, brings together total United Nations system technical cooperation expenditures according to organization, sector and category of expenditure. Two features of this table are worth observing. First, for each United Nations organization, expenditures are broken down according to type of expenditure: regular budget (A); United Nations system extrabudgetary sources other than UNDP (B1); non-United Nations system multilateral sources (B2); bilateral sources channelled through the United Nations system (C1); and unilateral "self-supporting" sources (C2). Second, all expenditures by UNDP, the United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF) and the World Food Programme (WFP) are classified as B1 expenditures, distributed according to sector, which basically implies that these entities were directly responsible for the implementation of their entire programme. In fact, this is not necessarily so, but the aim here is to preserve tractability and to minimize double counting.

4. Tables 4 through 8 amplify on the sources, or expenditure categories, of table 3. More specifically, table 4 breaks down regular budget expenditures (A) by country and organization, which makes it possible to ascertain the amount of regular budgetary expenditure incurred by a given organization in a given country. As a consistency check, it will be noted that the grand total of this table is the same as that shown at the end of table 3, the extreme right column of row A. Table 5 contains the distribution of the expenditure of all non-United Nations system multilateral sources (B2), by country and organization; the total in this table agrees with that of line B2 at the end of table 3, the extreme right column of row B2. The detailed beakdown by country and organization of bilateral resources channelled to the United Nations executing and specialized agencies (C1) is given in table 6; the total of this table is the same as that of line C1 at the end of table 3, the extreme right column of row C1. Table 7 contains detailed expenditure data from United Nations system multilateral sources (B1), also classified by country and organization; the total in this table equals that shown by line B1 at the end of table 3, the right column of row B1. Finally, the distribution by country and organization of unilateral expenditure (C2) routed to executing and specialized agencies and back to the contributing countries is shown by the "self-supporting expenditures" column of table 8; the total of this column agrees with that in line C2 of table 3, the extreme right column of row C2.

5. Table 9 contains data on extrabudgetary contributions to the executing and specialized agencies, organized under the following headings: unilateral and bilateral sources [country or territory and non-governmental organizations (NGOs)] and multilateral sources (United Nations system and non-United Nations system). Contributions received by executing and specialized agencies to fund "self-supporting" technical cooperation expenditures are presented in table 10.

6. The remaining tables contain historical data with varying time periods between 1980 and 2001. Contributions to and expenditure by UNDP, UNFPA, UNICEF, and WFP from 1995 to 2001 according to various criteria are given in tables 11 to 15. Technical cooperation expenditure, nominal amounts and rates of growth by the entire United Nations system for 1980 to 2001 can be found in tables 16 and 17. Two new tables have been added: tables 18 and 19, which show historical data on regular and extrabudgetary expenditure by executing and specialized agencies. Tables 20 and 21 contain historical data and rates of growth of extrabudgetary contributions to executing and specialized agencies. Finally, table 22 reports historical summary data on voluntary contributions received by UNDP, UNFPA, UNICEF and WPF.

C. Caveats

7. Use of the data in the present document should be guided by the following caveats:

(a) Scope: The data on expenditure/contributions refer only to those for technical cooperation. The report defines technical cooperation activities to include the work of UNDP, executing and specialized agencies, UNFPA, UNICEF and WFP;

(b) Expenditure coverage: All expenditure data refer to the field programme activities of the entities concerned. All expenditure data are also net of administrative, support and other costs. Expenditure data thus refer to the actual amount of resources directly invested in developmental activities, which here and in document DP/2001/30 are classified as field programme expenditure. The only exception is the World Health Organization (WHO) whose expenditure is inclusive of these other costs;

(c) World Bank and the International Development Association (IDA): As a result of the shift in orientation and focus, the World Bank and IDA no longer specifically attempt to capture the technical cooperation components of their projects and are thus not in a position to provide this kind of data. In this regard and since 2000, this report has excluded the reporting of data from the World Bank Group;

(e) Contributions – Agency: Data on contributions by United Nations organizations refer to extrabudgetary contributions only; regular budgetary contributions are not included in the report. As a result, contribution data on United Nations organizations in the present report must not be equated with income;

(f) Contributions – UNDP and UNFPA: Data on contributions to UNDP and UNFPA refer to voluntary contributions only. In the case of UNDP, cost-sharing, contributions to local office costs, government cash counterpart contributions, funds and trust funds, management services agreements and miscellaneous have been excluded from total contributions. For both entities, voluntary contributions are not the same as total contributions or total income;

(g) Contributions – UNICEF: Contribution data refer to voluntary contributions from Governments, the private sector and inter-organizational sources; contributions are not the same as total income.

D. Terminology

8. Usage of the data contained in this addendum can be enhanced considerably from an understanding of the terminology employed, some of which may be unfamiliar. The most important definitions and concepts are given below.

9. Technical cooperation activities. These are activities that aim to promote increasing self-reliance and thus strengthen the conditions necessary for sustainable human development. They include human resource development (education, health, social development), and managerial, technical, administrative and research capabilities required to formulate and implement development plans and policies, including the management and development of appropriate institutions and enterprises, and policy advice. All United Nations organizations reviewed in the present report, with the exception of the World Bank and IDA, are considered to engage in technical cooperation activities.

10. Regular budget expenditures. These refer to technical cooperation expenditures of executing and specialized agencies financed out of their assessed budgets (i.e., contributions). They are therefore linked to voting power within agencies. Table 4 in the statistical annex contains detailed data on regular budget expenditures of United Nations organizations. UNDP, UNICEF, UNFPA and WFP do not have regular budget expenditures because contributions are entirely voluntary.

11. Extrabudgetary expenditures. As distinct from regular budget contributions, these refer to expenditures by United Nations organizations financed from voluntary contributions originating from multilateral and bilateral sources.

12. Multilateral. Multilateral sources are divided into: (a) United Nations system (B1); and (b) multilateral sources outside of the United Nations system (B2). Total B1 (see table 3) expenditure comprises agency B1 and the rest of the system B1, excluding the World Bank and IDA. Agency B1 expenditure funds technical cooperation activities from resources available within the United Nations system: they are, in other words, essentially payments to agencies by other entities of the United Nations system for services rendered. Considerable efforts have been made to avoid the problem of double-counting – of counting a payment and a receipt twice. The rest of the system B1 comprises expenditures from UNDP, UNICEF, UNFPA and WFP. Line B1 at the end of table 3 shows in summary form total B1 expenditures while a detailed breakdown is given in table 7. Multilateral sources of extrabudgetary expenditures outside the United Nations system are referred to in the present document as B2 expenditures; they are provided by outside entities such as regional development banks, the Commission of the European Communities and the various Arab development funds. The crucial aspect of B2 expenditures is that they are passed on from outside multilateral entities to organizations of the United Nations system for the purpose of financing technical cooperation activities in developing countries. Line B2 at the end of table 3 gives a summary account of this category of extrabudgetary expenditure while the details are contained in table 5.

13. Bilateral. Bilateral extrabudgetary expenditures are also grouped into two categories: (a) non-United Nations system sources (C1); and (b) unilateral self-supporting sources. The former comprises expenditures incurred against resources provided directly to a United Nations organization by a Member State or an NGO to fund technical cooperation activities in developing countries. These are resources made available to the United Nations system from bilateral donors. They also include expenditures against multi-bilateral contributions (i.e., contributions by one country for a specific project(s) in another country) as well as expenditures by a United Nations organization against special purpose funds managed by it. The term "unilateral" is used to emphasize that such expenditures finance technical cooperation activities within the country that made the contribution to the United Nations system. Unilateral expenditures are thus passed from the given country to the United Nations system and back to the same country; the only difference is that they have acquired a dual character: unilateral because they return to the contributing country; bilateral because they were routed from a country to the United Nations system.

14. Agency extrabudgetary contributions. These are used to fund extrabudgetary expenditures: one is the income side of the equation while the other is the expenditure side. Extrabudgetary contributions are voluntary contributions, which may be tied to a specific purpose or geographic location and which are divided in two broad groups: bilateral and multilateral. Bilateral contributions are broken down into: (a) contributions from countries and territories, representing funds donated to the United Nations system to support activities in developing countries; (b) contributions from NGOs to the United Nations system; and (c) unilateral self-supporting contributions, made by a country to finance technical cooperation activities in that country. Multilateral contributions are subdivided into: (a) contributions from the United Nations system (in essence, such contributions represent an internal transfer (i.e., payment) of resources within the United Nations system from (mainly) funding agencies to executing agencies for services rendered; and (b) contributions originating outside of the United Nations system, made by multilateral organizations that are not part of the United Nations system. Examples of such organizations are the African Development Bank and the Arab Gulf Fund for United Nations Development Organizations.

In different ways, table 3 through 8 amplify the summary data contained in table 1.

b/ This column represents UNICEF and WFP expenditures for which the agency breakdown was not available. WFP contributions and expenditures data submitted in 2000 were based on provisional data retrieved from the financial accounting system, prior to the preparation of the mid-biennium interim financial statements. Likewise, data submitted in 2001 are based on WFP unaudited financial statements.

c/ Based on expenditures from regular resources, cost-sharing, SPR, SMF/LDC and SIS.

d/ Includes DESA (formerly DDSMS) and DESIPA.

e/ UNFPA-funded expenditures of $832 000 in the Population sector (11) to UNDP-administered fund for UNIFEM.
f/ The data provided by UNESCO under "Regular budget (category "A")" represent expenditures incurred under that organization's participation programme.
g/ Including support costs.

Note:

This table is an overall summary of technical cooperation expenditures of the United Nations system. The first two columns on the left show the executing agency and the category of expenditures; the other columns show the sectoral distribution of expenditures. The purpose of the table is to identify the executing agency and the amount, by sector, of technical cooperation expenditure for which each agency was directly responsible/implemented. Thus, UNFPA directly implemented $73.3 million of its $187.1 million technical cooperation expenditure in 1999.

Source of funds category "A" corresponds to the "Funded by regular budgets" column of tables 1 and 2, while B1+B2+C1+C2 correspond to the "Funded by extrabudgetary sources other than UNDP and UNDP-administered funds, UNFPA, UNICEF and WFP" column of tables 1 and 2 plus the columns of "UNFPA", "UNICEF and WFP" and "UNDP central resources" and "UNDP-administered funds". For a more detailed breakdown of each budget source, see tables 4 through 7, and the "Self-supporting expenditures" column of table 8. See notes at the end of these tables for further explanation.

Since total B1 of this table comprises agency expenditures funded from other multilateral sources, plus those of UNFPA, UNICEF, WFP and UNDP (central resources and administered funds), then agency B1 expenditure is equal to total B1 - [UNFPA+UNICEF+WFP+UNDP(central resources and administered funds)]. Total agency multilateral expenditure is then equal to total B1 - [UNFPA+UNICEF+WFP+UNDP(central resources and administered funds)] + B2. Total multilateral expenditure from United Nations system sources, including agency multilateral expenditures, is equal to total B1+B2 of table 3.

Note: Contributions data refer to voluntary contributions from Member States, which therefore present only a partial, albeit important, picture of total contributions. In the case of UNDP, the data in the table exclude cost-sharing, funds and trust funds, government cash counterpart contributions, contributions to local office costs, extrabudgetary activities and management services agreements; for UNICEF, data exclude various private sources interorganizational arrangements and miscellaneous; and for WPF, the data exclude contributions from NGOs, the United Nations system and other multilateral donors.
